HOW TO USE THIS BOOK.

Instructions for using the Parish Register, Church of the Incarnation.

THE following suggestions and explanations may be of service to clergymen:

I.—FAMILIES.

1. Arrange them in the order in which each family became connected with the parish.
2. Give to each family, less than twelve in number, the space across the page between the horizontal red lines; thus keeping each family distinct, and leaving room to note subsequent changes. If the family contains twelve or more names, combine two of the horizontal spaces.
3. Write the ordinal number I, II, III, IV, &c., under the heading "Number," on the intersection of the double red lines.
4. Insert the maiden name of the wife. Place the names of children immediately after those of parents, and other names always in the second column.
5. The age recorded should correspond to the date in the first column.
6. The heading, B. C. C., indicates the abbreviations used respectively for those baptized, confirmed or communicants.
7. Deaths may be indicated by the mark (*) immediately before the names: removals by the mark (†).
8. A list of families thus kept will not need re-writing while the register lasts.

II.—BAPTISMS.

1. Day and Date. That is, ecclesiastical and civil date.
2. Place. If not in Church, state at what house.
3. In recording adult baptisms, write "adult" under the surname.
4. Give the family name of the mother, the residence of the parents, and the residence and relationship to the child of sponsors other than parents.
5. Every baptism should be authenticated, if possible, by the signature of the clergyman officiating.
6. Certifications of Private Baptisms, which were not performed in the parish, may be noted on the last line of the page; other certifications, under the "Day and Date," and "Place" of the Private Baptism.

III.—CONFIRMED.

1. Give names in full. Note the place, if other than the Church.
2. Baptism. If in the parish, a reference (by number or page) to entries of baptisms is sufficient; if elsewhere, give the name of the parish or religious body in which it was performed.

IV.—COMMUNICANTS.

1. "Day and Date"—of reception, or first Communion in the parish.
2. "Number"—as in all cases refers to the chronological order in which the names and date should be written.
3. Write the year distinctly above the names added for that year, leaving a blank line above and below it.
4. The narrow column immediately before the name is intended to show at a glance the deaths (*), removals (†), and suspensions or withdrawals (‡).
5. Write the maiden names of married women in a parenthesis before the surname; the surname added by marriage after becoming a communicant, in a parenthesis after the maiden name: e. g. Mrs. A—(B.—) C—; Miss A—B—(C—). A representing the Christian name, B the maiden name, C the husband's name.
6. C. A. R. Denote by C, those admitted to communion on their confirmation in the parish; A, those admitted otherwise, adding C if subsequently confirmed; R, those received from another parish. In the latter case, give the name of the parish "whence received."
7. The name of the communicant returning after removal should, as a general rule, be re-entered at the foot of the list. Except in such cases, no name need be recorded more than once. If the removal is temporary or uncertain, the mark (†) may be in pencil, and thus easily erased.

V.—MARRIAGES.

1. "Place"—i. e., in Church; or at what house.
2. The names and residence of two or more special witnesses should be recorded.

VI.—BURIALS.

1. After the name of a wife, note that of her husband; after that of a child, those of its parents, &c.

VII.—INDEX.

It may often be found convenient to arrange the INDEX in the form of an Index Rerum, by dividing the space given to each initial into five subdivisions, headed each with an initial and vowel, the latter representing the first vowel of the name, as Aa, Ae, Ai, Ao, Auy, &c. The proportions of the vowels under different initials may be readily found by looking through any alphabetical list—as the Clergy List in the Church Almanac—or, still better, by first preparing a list from the Parish Records, and regulating the spaces accordingly.

given of an election for vestrymen of said parish. Said election was held, & the following elected:— Sr. Warden — ~~D.~~ R. P. Smith. Jr. Warden — Mr. Wm. H. Boud — Vestrymen — Messrs. E. W. Maslin, G. W. Jones, L. A. Martin, F. P. Thompson & F. G. Hayle. The vestry organized, & elected the resident missionary (Rev. Geo. C. Lane) to assume the duties of rector of the Parish of the Incarnation, by which name said parish was to be known. ~~The~~ Mr. L accepted, being guaranteed a salary of at least four hundred ($400.00/100) dollars per year, & date from Jan. 1893, at which time the parish may be said to have actually begun. The vestry by canonical consent of the Bishop of the diocese (California) having been obtained, & the parish now in full working order, a request was presented by the vestry, that it be admitted for a separate parish. This request is therefore now closed, & all subsequent made in the Parish Register of the Church of the Incarnation, Santa Rosa. Cal

History, Church of the Incarnation, Parish Register, pp. 6 & 7, 1862-1924, California Microfilm No. 1001 03 313450 01 0, Central Library Annex, Sonoma County Library, 3rd & E Streets, Santa Rosa, California.

1872. According to the parish registre, which has been carfully compiled by Rev. Jas. H. Smith, the first services were held at Santa Rosa by Rev. Dudley Chase. These services were only occasional. In 1867 the Pacific Coast Mission, under the leadership of Rev. S. Lloyd Burch. D.D. came to California, & duly in 1868 took charge of this field (Sonoma County). Services were according held by Rev. Dr. Burch, & Rev. Messrs. Smith & Bowen, members of the Mission, & the Rev. H. A. Perry, Rector of S. Paul's, Benicia, the headquarters of the Mission. In 18 Rev. Jas. H. Smith, Priest, was appointed "Missionary & Santa Rosa, & parts adjacent," by the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of Cal. His position he held, & the services were on each month, & latterly twice a month, in Santa Rosa; until September, 1871, when he resigned his position, & returned to New York, his former diocese. Shortly after Rev. Geo. C. Lane, Deacon, the present incumbent was appointed to this field, & entered upon his work in January, 1872, the Rector & the neighboring Clergy exchanging with him once each month, to administer the Holy Eucharist. May 3d Rev. Mr. Lane was ordained Priest in the Ch. of the Advent. S. F., & was thus enabled to take entire charge of the field.

The Missionary Committee of the diocese having relieved the missionary at Santa Rosa from all the former missionary field except the aforementioned town, in December of 1872. there being a sufficient number of male communicants to form a Vestry, & the people were desirous of forming a Parish, notice was

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK.

Instructions for using the Parish Register, Church of the Incarnation.

THE following suggestions and explanations may be of service to clergymen:

I.—FAMILIES.

1. Arrange them in the order in which each family became connected with the parish.
2. Give to each family, less than twelve in number, the space across the page between the horizontal red lines; thus keeping each family distinct, and leaving room to note subsequent changes. If the family contains twelve or more names, combine two of the horizontal spaces.
3. Write the ordinal number I, II, III, IV, &c., under the heading "Number," on the intersection of the double red lines.
4. Insert the maiden name of the wife. Place the names of children immediately after those of parents, and other names always in the second column.
5. The age recorded should correspond to the date in the first column.
6. The heading, B. C. C., indicates the abbreviations used respectively for those baptized, confirmed or communicants.
7. Deaths may be indicated by the mark (*) immediately before the names: removals by the mark (†).
8. A list of families thus kept will not need re-writing while the register lasts.

II.—BAPTISMS.

1. Day and Date. That is, ecclesiastical and civil date.
2. Place. If not in Church, state at what house.
3. In recording adult baptisms, write "adult" under the surname.
4. Give the family name of the mother, the residence of the parents, and the residence and relationship to the child of sponsors other than parents.
5. Every baptism should be authenticated, if possible, by the signature of the clergyman officiating.
6. Certifications of Private Baptisms, which were not performed in the parish, may be noted on the last line of the page; other certifications, under the "Day and Date," and "Place" of the Private Baptism.

III.—CONFIRMED.

1. Give names in full. Note the place, if other than the Church.
2. Baptism. If in the parish, a reference (by number or page) to entries of baptisms is sufficient; if elsewhere, give the name of the parish or religious body in which it was performed.

IV.—COMMUNICANTS.

1. "Day and Date"—of reception, or first Communion in the parish.
2. "Number"—as in all cases refers to the chronological order in which the names and date should be written.
3. Write the year distinctly above the names added for that year, leaving a blank line above and below it.
4. The narrow column immediately before the name is intended to show at a glance the deaths (*), removals (†), and suspensions or withdrawals (‡).
5. Write the maiden names of married women in a parenthesis before the surname; the surname added by marriage after becoming a communicant, in a parenthesis after the maiden name: e. g. Mrs. A—(B.—) C—; Miss A—B—(C—). A representing the Christian name, B the maiden name, C the husband's name.
6. C. A. R. Denote by C, those admitted to communion on their confirmation in the parish; A, those admitted otherwise, adding C if subsequently confirmed; R, those received from another parish. In the latter case, give the name of the parish "whence received."
7. The name of the communicant returning after removal should, as a general rule, be re-entered at the foot of the list. Except in such cases, no name need be recorded more than once. If the removal is temporary or uncertain, the mark (†) may be in pencil, and thus easily erased.

V.—MARRIAGES.

1. "Place"—i. e., in Church; or at what house.
2. The names and residence of two or more special witnesses should be recorded.

VI.—BURIALS.

1. After the name of a wife, note that of her husband; after that of a child, those of its parents, &c.

VII.—INDEX.

It may often be found convenient to arrange the INDEX in the form of an Index Rerum, by dividing the space given to each initial into five subdivisions, headed each with an initial and vowel, the latter representing the first vowel of the name, as Aa, Ae, Ai, Ao, Auy, &c. The proportions of the vowels under different initials may be readily found by looking through any alphabetical list—as the Clergy List in the Church Almanac—or, still better, by first preparing a list from the Parish Records, and regulating the spaces accordingly.
